TRANSFER PRICING

Transfer pricing remains a leading and challenging issue for tax and financial specialists of international companies and tax authorities. INATAX pleased to provide Transfer Pricing Services including:

TRANSFER PRICING REVIEW

Global transfer pricing involves the setting and adjustment of charges between related businesses in exchange for goods, services, or for use of a property across borders. These transactions are carefully analyzed by tax authorities from both countries particularly Indonesia Tax Authority. INATAX can review your transfer pricing policies and documentation mitigating the potential costly tax audit.

BENCHMARKING STUDY

With over one-third of all world trade consisting of intercompany transactions, transfer pricing has become the most significant international tax issue facing multinational companies today. Given this operating environment, you want clear direction and understanding of the transfer pricing for your company's intercompany transactions so that you can better budget and manage profitability. To achieve that goal, we'll work with you, applying INATAX's proprietary transfer pricing benchmark analysis. After working with us, you will have information regarding the profit levels required under Indonesia transfer pricing regulations. In addition, you will have a range of profit levels. We will apply the profit-level indicator to your company's projected operating results. The outcome for this process is that you will have a precise transfer price. Please be aware that this option does not protect you from penalties should the Directorate General of Taxation (DGT) sustain a transfer pricing adjustment.

TRANSFER PRICING DOCUMENTATION

Indonesia Tax Authority adopted BEPS 13 in respecting Transfer Pricing Documentation applicable for Fiscal 2016 and beyond. All of domestic and multinational group which demonstrate related party transactions mandatory to provide Transfer Pricing Documentation complying with PMK-213 guidance formally and materially. Our TP Advisors would be pleasure to assist your company in providing TP Documentation in respecting PMK-213 and OECD TP Guidelines.

TRANSFER PRICING PLANNING

In this service, we assist you in developing transfer pricing and tax planning strategies through structuring tax-efficient supply chain and business operations and many other ways.

ASSISTANCE IN SUBMITTING OF ADVANCE PRICING AGREEMENT (APA)

An advance pricing agreement (APA) is an ahead-of-time agreement between a taxpayer and a tax authority on an appropriate transfer pricing methodology (TPM) for a set of transactions at issue over a fixed period of time (called "Covered Transactions"). Taxpayer definitely can propose the APA to avoid irritating tax dispute before tax audit and litigation. INATAX definitely can assist you to propose APA in respecting Indonesia Transfer Pricing regulation.

TRANSFER PRICING LITIGATION SUPPORT

Recently, DGT has been aggressively raising the transfer pricing issues due to related party transactions particularly at the tax audit stage. Taxpayer should prepare litigation strategy on settlement of Transfer Pricing dispute. Our team will work with you to develop strategies and appropriate practices to manage the audit/objection/appeal before tax court/ and also extra ordinary review before Supreme Court proceedings.
